

Vilnius International Communicable Disease Week (26 June – 1 July 2016) PROGRAM

- 13th Annual Conference of Baltic Antiviral Network “VIRUSES AS MOVING TARGETS”
(Working language English)
26 – 27 June, Lithuanian academy of Science, Gedimino Av. 3, Vilnius.
- June 28, Closed BAN session. Congress hotel (Vilniaus St. 2).
- Education session: The 6th Free Lecture course in Virology
(Working languages English and Lithuanian with simultaneous translation)
28 – 29 June, Hotel Karolina, Sausio 13-osios St. 2, Vilnius.
- Networking and Activity Coordination session: “How to do right things right ”
(Working languages English and Lithuanian with simultaneous translation)
30 June – 1 July, Government House, Gedimino Av. 11, Vilnius.

Education session: The 6th Free Lecture course in Virology

(Working languages English and Lithuanian with simultaneous translation)

"Hotel Karolina", Sausio 13-osios St. 2, Vilnius.

June 28 (Tuesday)
7:30-8:00	Registration
8:00-9:30	Session 1: HIV AND ASSOCIATED INFECTIONS AND CONDITIONS. Chairs: Leonas Valius (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania), Mariana Mardarescu (National Institute for Infectious Diseases "Prof. Dr. Matei Bals", Bucharest, Romania)
8:00-8:30	Diagnostics of HIV-1 infection, and failure to prevent. Saulius Caplinskas (Centre for Communicable Diseases and AIDS, Vilnius, Lithuania)
8:30-9:00	What has changed in HIV in the past 30 years. Els Hollanders (Viiv Healthcare, Brussels, Belgium)
9:00-9:30	HIV-1 infection and sexually transmitted bacterial diseases: syphilis, gonorrhoea, chlamydia, ureaplasma and mycoplasma. Annelie Brauner (Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, Sweden)
9:30-10:00	Health Break
10:00-10:30	AIDS vaccines. Andrej Kozlov (St. Petersburg University, Russia)
10:30-11:00	Responses to childhood vaccinations in HIV-1 infected children. Francesca Chiodi (Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm, Sweden)
11:00-11:30	Children long-living with HIV: experience from Romania. Mariana Mardarescu (National Institute for Infectious Diseases "Prof. Dr. Matei Bals", Bucharest, Romania)
11:30-12:00	TBC
12:00-13:00	Lunch Break
13:00-15:00	Session 2: PARENTERALY TRANSMITTED INFECTIONS. Chairs: Sonata Varvuolytė (Lithuania), Mikhail Mikhailov (Chumakovs Institute of Poliomyelitis and Viral Encephalitis, Moscow, Russia)
13:00-13:30	Modern way to ensure blood safety: inactivation of blood-borne pathogens. Reinhard Henschler (Swiss Red Cross, Switzerland)
13:30-14:00	Hepatitis C Virus. Ranjit Ray (St Louis University School of Medicine, USA)
14:00-14:30	Hepatitis B and hepatitis D viruses. Mikhail Mikhailov and Karen Kyuregyan (Chumakovs

	Institute of Poliomyelitis and Viral Encephalitis, Moscow, Russia)
14:30-15:00	Parenteral viral hepatitis: Epidemiological Situation in Baltic Countries. Tatjana Tallo (The Public Health Agency of Sweden, Stockholm, Sweden)
	EDUCATIONAL AND BEST PRACTICE POSTERS
15:00-15:30	Health Break
15:30-17:00	Session 3: HEALTH CARE ASSOCIATED INFECTIONS. Chairs: Rolanda Valinteliene (Lithuania), Johannes Hallauer (Dietrich Bonhoeffer Klinikum, Germany)
15:30-16:00	Analysis of nosocomial infections with blood-borne viruses. Maria Isagulians (Karolinska Institutet, Sweden, and Riga Stradins University, Latvia)
16:00-16:30	Nosocomial infection in hospital settings - emerging problems with multiresistant microbes. Johannes Hallauer (Dietrich Bonhoeffer Klinikum, Germany)
16:30-17:00	Psychological health care aspects. Eugenijus Laurinaitis (Vilnius University, Lithuania)
17:00-18:00	Session 4: CASES ANALYSIS. Chair: Gintautas Barcys (State medicines control agency, Vilnius, Lithuania)
	Gastric syphilis imitating neoplasm: case report. Kestutis Adamonis (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
	Mass media effect on disease prevention. Milda Žygutienė (Centre for Communicable Diseases and AIDS, Vilnius, Lithuania)
	Vaccine adverse reactions, Virginija Žilėnaite-Puodžiuvienė (State Medicine Control Agency, Lithuania), Kristina Žukauskaitė (Centre for Communicable Diseases and AIDS, Vilnius, Lithuania)
June 29 (Wednesday)
8:30-10:00	Session 5: ENTERIC AND VACCINE PREVENTABLE INFECTIONS. Chairs: Jan Drobeniuk (CDC, Atlanta, USA), Arvydas Ambrozaitis (Vilnius University, Lithuania)
8:30-9:00	Hepatitis A virus, and the analysis of hepatitis A outbreaks in Europe. Anders Widell (Lund University, Sweden)
9:00-9:30	Tick-borne encephalitis: situation in the Baltic countries and main clinical problems. Auskė Mickienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
9:30-10:00	New human respiratory viruses: from discovery to intervention. Albertus D Osterhaus (Research Center for Emerging Infections and Zoonoses, Hannover, Germany)
10:00-10:30	Health Break
10:30-12:00	Session 5 (Continuation): ENTERIC AND VACCINE PREVENTABLE INFECTIONS. Chairs: Daiva Vaitkienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania), Albertus D Osterhaus (Research Center for Emerging Infections and Zoonoses, Hannover, Germany)
10:30-11:00	HPV and secondary prevention of cervical cancer (testing of HPV for screening, diagnostics and observation). Daiva Vaitkienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
11:00-11:30	Hepatitis E Virus Infection in the developed countries. Jan Drobeniuk (CDC, Atlanta, USA)
11:30-12:00	Influenza pandemics: can we be prepared? Albertus D Osterhaus (Research Center for Emerging Infections and Zoonoses, Hannover, Germany)
12:00-13:00	Lunch Break
13:00-14:00	Session 6: ENTERIC AND VACCINE PREVENTABLE INFECTIONS. Chairs: Nerija Kuprevičienė (Ministry of Health, Vilnius, Lithuania), Angelika Banzhoff (GlaxoSmithKline, Brussels, Belgium)
13:00-13:15	Progress of vaccination against flu in pregnant women in frame of WHO project. Rūta Nadišauskienė, Meilė Minkauskienė and Zita Strecovienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
13:15-13:30	HPV vaccination from autumn – do we expect success (primary prevention). Kristina Jarienė and Daiva Vaitkienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)

13:30-13:45	Real burden of pneumococcal infection in Lithuania. Auksė Mickienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
14:00-15:00	Session 7: PUBLIC HEALTH AND SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES. Chairs: Aurelijus Veryga (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania), Andrej Kozlov (St. Peterburg university, Russia)
14:00-14:20	Actual questions of treatment: fighting resistance, dealing with patients. Vladimir Shukhov (WHO adviser, Moscow, Russian Federation)
14:20-14:50	New psychoactive substances. Robertas Badaras (Vilnius University, Lithuania)
15:00-15:30	Health Break
15:30-18:00	Session 8: METHODS IN VIROLOGY, DIAGNOSTICS, EPIDEMIOLOGY, PATIENT CARE. Chairs: Saleem Kamili (CDC, Atlanta, USA), Eugenijus Preidis (Clinic of Infectious Diseases at Panevezys Republican Hospital, Lithuania)
15:30-16:00	Better Labs for Better Health. Dmitriy Pereyaslov (WHO)
16:00-16:20	Challenges in Laboratory Diagnosis of HBV and HCV Infections. Saleem Kamili (CDC, Atlanta, USA)
16:20-16:40	Laboratory quality management, QA/QC issues. Jan Drobeniuc (CDC, Atlanta, USA)
17:40-17:10	Challenges of Hospital-acquired Infections (HAI) Management. Enrico Montrucchio (Italy)
17:10-17:20	Blood donor safety. Evija Benina (Latvian State Blood Donor Centre, Riga, Latvia)
17:25-17:40	Significance of diagnostics and treatment of perinatal infections. Meilė Minkauskienė (Lithuanian University of Health Sciences, Kaunas, Lithuania)
17:40-17:55	STD-practical notes. Andris Rubins (Latvia university, Ryga, Latvija)
	EDUCATIONAL AND BEST PRACTICE POSTERS

More information and registration www.vilnius-summit.eu and www.ulac.lt.

Contact info tel: +370 671 10216 (Joana), +370 67294281 (Gintare)